

Racing Extinction

Answer the following questions in your (400+ word) response of the 2015 film “Racing Extinction”

1. How do human activities result in species extinctions? Identify three species that have gone extinct due to human activities and three species that are in danger of becoming extinct.
2. Give an example of how each of the following can help find solutions to environmental problems; individual people, local communities, corporations and governments. Which do you feel is most responsible for finding solutions and why?
3. Has this film changed your world view in any way? How or how not?